

2019 van der Kamp Vineyard

Pinot Noir

Sonoma Mountain, Sonoma County

Founded in 2014, Roger & Donna Beery along with their children, Conch and Whitney set upon a calling for their rich family history, mutual respect for honesty and integrity in winemaking. Along with consulting winemaker Adam Lee, J. Cage Cellars honors two generations with one passion. Their philosophy is traditional and non-interventionist and they believe winemaking begins in the vineyard, while sourcing from small family growers that are some of the most respected in Sonoma County.

From one of the most coveted Pinot Noir vineyards in Sonoma County. A blend of six Pinot Noir clones, including the rare La Tâche clone of Domaine De La Romanee-Conti fame.

The extraordinary van der Kamp vineyard is positioned at an elevation of 1,500 feet on a north facing bench of Sonoma Mountain, has a long history of superb cultivation. Their organic farming practices aim to maximize biodiversity.

“The best fertilizer for a vineyard is the shadow of the farmer”.
Ulysses van der Kamp.
